A Glance in the Mirror

Dutch and Polish religious cultures In the spring of 2010, Polish and Dutch scholars came together for a two-day study conference at the Catholic University of Lublin. The aim of this conference was an exchange of theological insights and views on the future of theology, church and society in both countries.
The differences turned out to be large. Differences, which stem from historical roots, but also from recent social and cultural developments. The Polish hosts saw the unity within the Catholic Church as the most important issue for the future. The Dutch delegation, on the other hand, stressed that the future role of the churches lies in learning to accept and handle religious and cultural diversity.
The articles in this book were the starting point for exciting discussions: A challenging encounter by casting a glance in the mirror.

Close to Our Hearts

Personal Reflections on Marriage Does taking a lifelong vow still make sense today? The twenty-four contributors to this book, all internationally recognized specialists in marriage, show from a variety of perspectives that it remains profoundly meaningful to understand marriage as a shared path that leads to maturity.
Not only do the authors present fundamental theological and philosophical ideas from the past two thousand five hundred years, but they also speak about their own personal experiences.

Proceed with Caution?

Concept and application of the precautionary principle in nanobiotechnology

Nanobiotechnology is still a developing field. The results and promises of this technology are not only of scientific and economic importance, they also raise grave ethical, legal and social questions. In this context, especially the so called "Precautionary Principle" or "Vorsorgeprinzip" is of high relevance. What does it mean to "proceed with caution" in the field of nanobiotechnology? How can the principle be applied and specified? Is it a suitable tool for the protection against potentially dangerous effects on the environment and human health? What is the status of the Precautionary Principle in international agreements and national legislation?
